Dear Bill:

Thank you for participating in the session "Medicaid Transportation Models" at TLPA's Spring Conference in Las Vegas. Our convention survey indicates that the Opening General Session, which you were a part of, was the highest rated session of the entire conference.

More importantly, thank you for giving up your valuable time to attend the meeting and for participating in this session on short notice. The feedback that we are receiving from the attendees on the content of the conference's educational program has been very positive. This is a tribute to the efforts put in by speakers like you.

Thank you again for the time and effort.

Sincerely,

Jamie Campolongo
President
